Special thanks

We want to give special thanks to our friends Carlos and Ángel, who tested our game, and gave us good ideas to improve it.

We also want to thank Francisco Gallego Aka Profesor Retroman, for developing the CPCTelera engine, which made our task of making a game for the amstrad much more easy. Also, for his labor as a teacher, and the tons of informative videos on how to develop games, which taught us what we need for this project.

Target

You must reach the last floor to become the new boss. In order to do that, you have to defeat all the foes on your way. The rest of the employees will want to stop you, So, don't let them catch you! Do your best!

CONTROLS

O = Move left

P = Move right

Q = Jump

SPACE = Shoot

ESC = Reset

DEL = Pause

C = Redefine controls

JOYSTICK

You can use a joystick to play this game.

To do that, you need to redefine the controls on the menu screen.
